

CAREERS

Factory Leading Hand

Factory Leading Hand
Melbourne Fire Doors Pty Ltd
Melbourne Victoria
$35-$39 per hour + super

Our Company is a medium size family owned manufacturing company based in Springvale Victoria. We have over 30 years' experience specializing in the manufacturing of fire doors, supplying our products within the Construction, Commercial, residential sectors.

We are currently seeking an experienced Leading Hand for a full time, permanent position. You will need to be highly motivated, have excellent leadership and communication skills. Work within a team environment working closely with the Factory Manager, Sales staff and estimators. You will be overseeing a group of workshop employees to ensure all tasks are completed to a high standard and in a safe manner.

Main duties will be to oversee the manufacturing process on the workshop floor. Supervising workshop team members, quality control, purchasing and Stock control where required. Maintaining, monitoring all workshop tooling, machinery and equipment within the factory

Essential requirements

Trade Qualification cabinet maker/ wood machinist/joiner
Experience within a similar role
Excellent communication and people management skills
Ability to work under pressure and to deadlines
Sound computer skills
Knowledge in CNC machinery advantage
Forklift Licence
Actively participate in hands on work

This is a great opportunity for the right candidate to join a great team of people with the opportunity for future career progression.

For further queries please contact George Barker 0412828804 or 03 95740511

Apply now by sending your resume to careers@melbournefiredoors.com.au